

ATIP Request # and full text of request A-2016-00517

A breakdown of financial costs associated with the federal government's legal battle to maintain the Criminal Code prohibition on medical assistance in dying, by fiscal year, starting in 2011-12 and ending in 2016-17. (This period is intended to cover costs associated with the BCCLA's court challenge to the assisted dying ban in April 2011 and subsequent hearings before the Supreme Court of British Columbia, the Court of Appeal of British Columbia and the Supreme Court of Canada.) Such breakdown to include, but not limited to, the number of Justice Department officials involved, the number of outside legal experts hired, and the number of hours each group devoted to this matter.
